

...KISSERS & SNEAKERS
TO EVERYTHING THERE IS A SECRET

There is a season for everything, a time for every occupation under heaven: a time for giving birth, a time for dying; a time for planting, a time for uprooting what has been planted. A time for killing, a time for healing; a time for knocking down, a time for building. A time for tears, a time for laughter; a time for mourning, a time for dancing. A time for throwing stones away, a time for gathering them up; a time for embracing, a time to refrain from embracing.

INTER A SECON FOR EVERYTHING

A time for searching, a time for losing; a time for keeping, a time for throwing away. A time for tearing, a time for sewing, a time for keeping silent, a time for speaking. A time for loving, a time for hating; a time for war,
a time for peace.

Ecclesiastes 3:1-8

The seasons come and go so quickly—so much winter, spring, summer, and fall. Each moment, each flake of snow, each ray of sun has become something of a memory, something of the future, within our hearts and minds.

We struggled through the winters, and they were long and cold. The springs—the rebirths—visions of summer, filled and overflowing with thoughts of warmth and comfort. And now we face the fall of our lives with so much dying and falling to the ground in preparation . . . The cycle repeats, leading us gently to this moment then beyond. We are recognized in the vague traces ahead and the set patterns behind—caught in a timelessness, feeling melancholy and apprehension, yet at the same time eager in becoming a part of the future.

We're each on our way alone now, we are taking the past with us to build on—and as we must each interpret our lives from the moments lying ahead, so are we leaving this yearbook behind us in the hope that each of you will interpret something of it as a part of your own lives. We've included our fondest memories and most cherished dreams for each of you who takes the time to open our book, and we ask you to understand us for all we've done and found necessary to do, and for all we've failed to do. We've come through our season together in our hopes and in our aspirations, united through the worst of storms, tied by a bond of more than tradition—by a bond of friendship and concern for each other. We must leave in the same manner, at unity with each other as well as with ourselves.

We recognize each of you as a part of the collage of our past four years and thank you for being alive.

Remember to live life slowly, for there is a time to every purpose under heaven—

God bless you.

Peace,

teach your children

Teach your children well
 Their father's hell
 Did slowly go by
 And feed them on your dreams
 The one they pick's
 The one you'll know by
 Don't you ever ask them why
 If they told you you would cry
 So just look at them and sigh
 And you know they love you

"She won't give me any soda!"

When you're down and troubled
And you need some loving care
And nothing, nothing is going right
Close your eyes and think of me
And soon I will be there
To brighten up even your darkest night
You just call out my name
And you know wherever I am
I'll come running
To see you again
Winter, spring, summer or fall
All you have to do is call
And I'll be there
You've got a friend

"Hey! There's a party on the third floor!"

"Sssh! I'm supposed to be in English!"

"Leave me alone! I'm taking a speed test!"

"You'll have to come and get me first!"

The closer you get, the better she looks?!

"And then she got all excited and said, 'Oh, no, girls!' "

2:35 at last!

If the sky above you
Grows dark and full of clouds
And that old north wind begins to blow
Keep your head together
And call my name out loud
Soon you'll hear me knocking at your door
You just call out my name
And you know wherever I am
I'll come running to see you

Making friends
For the world to see
Let the people know
You got what you need
With a friend at hand
You will see the light

father-daughter breakfast

intramural activities

"And I got my suit at the Kampus Kloset!"

Goddam Heepies!!!

Who said we don't have a good looking class?

The classes get stranger every year!

"If you let me win,
I'll give you my gold tie."

Two left feet?

"Don't worry, I know what I'm doing."

thanksgiving mass and banquet

"Don't complain, it's better than sandwiches."

Angelites receive communion.

Well, that's one cute chick.

"I didn't think being chairman would be such hard work."

The faculty feast at Thanksgiving dinner.

Mothers lend a hand at Thanksgiving banquet.

"You didn't do that, did you?"

"You sure outcook my squaw!"

"Let's toast the seniors."

sophomore christmas play

"Charlie Brown is a blockhead, but he did get a nice tree, actually."

"With angelic hosts proclaim,
Christ is born in Bethlehem!
Hark, the herald angels sing,
Glory to the newborn king!"

"You've been dumb before,

And go round and round and round
In the circle game."

senior retreat

"I didn't know that!"

Seniors take a break between sessions.

"Lord, have mercy!"

Retreat master Father McGarity discusses Christian humanism.

arbor day

It's only a crab tree that we plant today, It's nourished and strengthened by the sun's bright rays,
It thrives on our constant love and the pouring rain,
This is our tree and love makes it grow.

Seniors examine their 2 yr.-old dogwood tree.

Rae Grigely holds the time capsule while sophomore president Kathy Benton digs a hole for the flowering crab apple tree.

Dale Starr, Cindy Renna, and Jane Smyth wait at the airport.

"You and I must make a pact,
We must bring salvation back.
Where there is love,
We'll be there.

We'll reach out our hands to you,
We'll have faith in all you do.
Just call our names,
We'll be there."

Amazing Grace

Amazing Grace
 How sweet the sound,
 That saved a wretch like me
 I once was lost, but now I'm found
 Was blind, but now I see.
 'Twas grace that taught my heart to fear
 And grace my fears relieved
 O gracious did that grace appear
 Thee hour I passed beneath it.
 Through many dangers, toils and snares
 We had already found
 'Twas grace that brought us safe.

Class Will 1971

Cooky and Chewy leave their little spot by the garbage cans to next year's senior sanitation girls.

Connie Ott leaves her meatpounder to whoever took it.

Corrine Klaus leaves her stack of Bio. term papers and a bottle of No-Doz to whoever dares take Bio. II next year.

Ellen Jamrogowicz leaves her class ring to her little sisters, which may be found at the bottom of Laurie Duke in New York.

Ann Dubiel leaves her private 4th period French class to Mary Catherine Silva and leaves Mary Catherine Silva to the mercy of Sr. Evelyn.

Judy Smith hopes that whoever finds Mark's ring in the bathroom will leave it to her.

Cindy Ligenza wills her body to the Bio. II class. To Denise Cartwright she leaves an empty space in Cacophony for her mini poems.

The senior class leaves the junior class "the joint".

Where do I go?

Follow the river

Where do I go

Follow the gulls

Where is the something

Where is the someone

That tells me why I live and die

Where do I go

Follow the children

Where do I go

Follow their smiles

Is there an answer

In their sweet faces

That tells me why I live and die

Follow the wind song

Follow the thunder

Follow the neon in young lovers' eyes

Down to the gutter

Up to the glitter

Into the city where the truth lies

Where do I go

Follow my heartbeat

Where do I go

Follow my hand

Where will they lead me

And will I ever

Discover why I live and die

I live and die ... I live and die ...
